Dear Harold —

So glad to hear your comments on Vivace. Spent most of Saturday and Sunday with the Salandrias and heard about that crashing bore and moral coward Curtis Crawford's performance. You are doing fine as I wrote you already earlier today, keep up the splendid presentation of the defects in the so-called evidence. No, I have no tape of the Lang John — if I ever get one will keep in mind copy for you. Congratulations on your second printing. All the best, Harold, and I wish I had more time to write properly and more fully. Sylvia

P.S. What do you think about the R. Goodwin piece? The N.Y. Times story yesterday was far more positive than the Newsweek piece.
